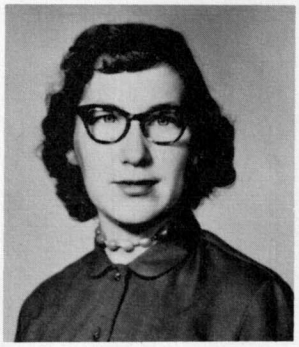
FOREWORD

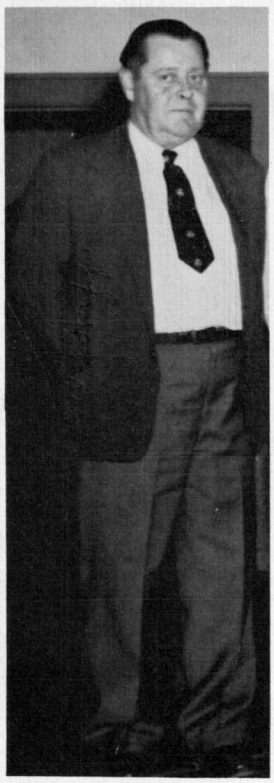
The staff takes great pleasure in presenting you the 1955 edition of the HILLTOPPER.



DEDICATION

This issue of the yearbook we dedicate to the seniors who are at once the smallest, yet the largest; the youngest, yet the oldest; and the weakest, yet the strongest.

IN MEMORIAM



In memory of our coach and high school teacher, Mr. Leonard Huff, whose untimely death we sincerely regret. Mr. Huff will always be remembered for his warm friendliness and his cooperative spirit.

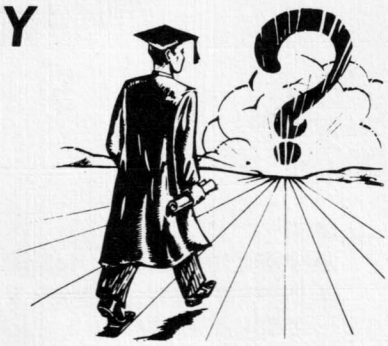
CLASS PROPHECY



Without the aid of a reputation as a prognosticator or fortuneteller, with not even so much as a cracked crystal ball, I shall attempt to look "Into the seeds of time and say which grain will grow and which will not." So, if you will bear with me, here are my predictions of what the class will be doing in five years:

Wesley Allison will make a career of the Navy and replace the U.S.S. Missouri as the big gun.

Jack Buchanan will still be wondering why nature gave him two hands and but one mouth.

Nancy Bryson will have ended a pretense of working for a big executive in Washington. She will marry him.

Irene Cabe will embark upon a career of nursing which will probably return her a medical degree and a medical doctor.

The trio of Lois Cowan, Kathryn Farmer, and Dixie Nell Johnson will pool their respective talents and open a small but exclusive restaurant in Asheville, N.C.

"Working" as bouncers in the Stork Club will be Posey Frizzell and Rosco Farmer. They'll be getting a pretty piece of change, and an eyeful of entertainment.

Jimmy Foxx as head steward on the ocean liner United States will find life a pleasant merry-go-round of tips, vacationing movie starlets, and more tips.

Building a new five and ten in Sylva will be Philip Henson, who must have come to the conclusion that the best place to make a sale is on Freeze Hill. At least that's where he is locating.

Becoming a very efficient secretary will be Frances Lewis, displaying that charming efficiency in the Jackson County Bank.

Jim Owens, armed with a degree in psychiatry and a portable couch, will be touring the far West in search of patients. With that disarming bedside (or should I say sofaside?) manner he should go far.

James Roper will go even farther than his pal Jim, namely to Lower Slobbovia, in search of a team of dancing fleas for his animal circus.

Welcome additions to the teaching profession, with its everthinning ranks, will be Lela Frizzell, Betty Lou Lewis, and Martha Shuler.

Very capably filling the position of roving reporter for the New York Glove, will be Lois Blanton who has never lacked the art of explaining a situation in a few choice words.

Chauffering a tractor-trailer and eating diesel smoke for the Blue-Ridge Trucking Company, will be Jimmy McConnell.

Thar she be, for better or for worse.
